I want to paint the soffit green from left corner to the far right corner. Owner has given me permission to do this. The green will go on the top stripe and bottom stripe. Tan to remain in between. Also on the small trim around the windows. The accent trim that now is a nasty brownish color. (like the bottom stripe on soffit)

The green that I want matches the green from the signage next door at Rotolo's pizza. I took a pic and will have it computer matched. I feel that this color scheme will brighten up this dull building, and attract passer's by better than it does now.
