

City of Worthington Social Media Rules and Guidelines

The purpose of the City of Worthington's social media platforms is to convey information pertaining to the City of Worthington, its residents, businesses and visitors. We welcome your comments, questions and concerns but please be aware that user-generated posts are monitored, and the City of Worthington reserves the sole right to delete, hide, or remove posts when the content has no First Amendment protection, such as:

- Criminal threats
- Advocating illegal discrimination
- Inciting, advocating, or promoting illegal activity
- Clearly off topic
- Links to malware
- Defamation as defined by Ohio law
- Infringing on copyrights or trademarks
- Spam: Comments focused on selling a product/service or posted to drive traffic to a particular website for monetary gain.

The City of Worthington reserves the right to block individuals who repeatedly violate these guidelines. The opinions and/or views expressed on the City of Worthington's social media pages, including, but not limited to, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, Vimeo, and YouTube, represent the thoughts of individual followers and not those of the City of Worthington and its employees.
